

What is Pay Me Today?

Pay Me Today is a value-added wage advance service that gives you more control over your cash flow. It provides you with instant access to up to 90% of your earned wages before pay day arrives.

How does it work?

Pay Me Today is a simple service that allows you to receive your wages early. After applying, you can receive your advance within the hour and then repay it on pay day along with a small admin fee.

Fast access

Once you've confirmed your earnings, the advance can be in your account within an hour

No interest charges

There's just a small administration fee which is clearly communicated upfront

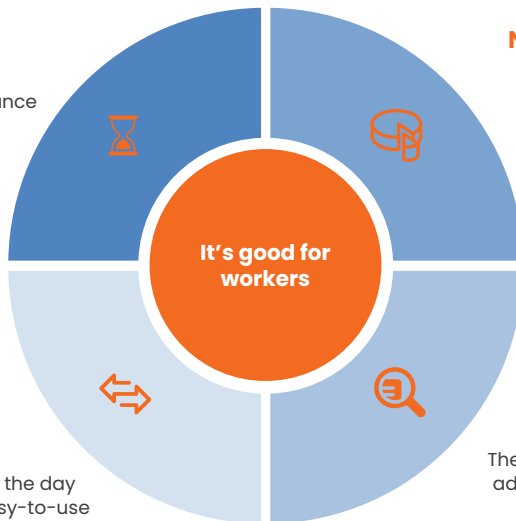

24/7 availability

You can apply for an advance at any time of the day or night through the easy-to-use Pay Me Today portal

No credit searches

There's no need as this is an advance for wages already earned; it is not a loan

The application process is simple and fuss free.
All you have to do is...

Firstly, log in to the easy-to-use Pay Me Today portal, located on your employer's, agency's or payroll provider's website and use the simple form to state how much you have earned this pay cycle and how much you would like to advance.

Secondly, confirm your details and that you are happy to proceed.

Finally, Pay Me Today will give you an instant decision and, if it's approved, the money's transferred typically within five minutes, along with a confirmation email and text.

And that's it. It really is the simple, fuss-free way to avoid those financial headaches. Whether it's a broken washing machine that needs replacing in the middle of the month or an unexpected bill, Pay Me Today understands that there are times when we all need a little extra cash at short notice. The service will reduce stress and help stop you from counting down the days till your next pay day.

It is important to note that this is NOT a pay day loan. Pay Me Today does not make you go into debt, it is not a loan and there is no interest. There is just a small administration fee, that is clearly communicated upfront. The Pay Me Today service is merely speeding up the payment process for wages that you already have the legal right to.
